1. Purpose. This regulation designates specific areas on Fort Monroe as off limits, identifies restricted activities, and the hours of limitation and restriction. Violations of the provisions of this regulation provide a basis for disciplinary action under the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ). Personnel committing any violations who are not subject to the UCMJ will be processed through the Federal Magistrate System IAW AR 190-29.

*This regulation supersedes FM Reg 190-3, 1 June 1990.

2. References.

a. AR 190-29 (Misdemeanors and Uniform Violation Notices Referred to US Magistrates or District Courts).

b. FM Circular 215-96-2 (Recreational Land and Water Activities).

3. Explanation of abbreviations. Abbreviations used in this regulation are explained in the glossary.

4. Responsibilities.

a. The Provost Marshal will enforce off limits areas and restricted activities. Reported or observed violations will be investigated.

b. Military sponsors will advise their family members of the contents of this regulation. Violations committed by sponsors or family members may result in the loss of on-post housing privileges.

5. Off limits areas.

a. All areas on top of the old fort parapet within the moat, with the exception of the bastion lookout located at the flagpole area and Jefferson Davis Memorial Park, are off limits during the hours of darkness. The grass portion that slopes toward the moat is off limits at all times.

b. The entire area north of the Fort Monroe Club tennis courts is off limits to all personnel after dark. Groups desiring to use the picnic area, camping area, or beach after dark must receive written authorization from Commander, Fort Monroe, ATTN: ATZG-PA, Fort Monroe, VA 23651-6000.

c. All seacoast battery and bunker areas are off limits at all times except for Battery Irwin, portions of Battery DeRussey, and the area south of Battery Parrott, which are open for visitation during daylight hours.

d. Gulick Drive, north of the Fort Monroe Club to the access road by Building T-86, is restricted to delivery traffic and service vehicles.

e. All Naval Surface Weapons Center areas are off limits.

f. All buildings, rooms, and areas designated as restricted areas are off limits to unauthorized personnel.

g. All unoccupied buildings and quarters are off limits at all times.

- h. The water tower located on Pratt Street, adjacent building 168, is off limits at all times.
 - i. The refueling pier is off limits at all times.
 - j. Marina pier boat dock area is off limits prior to 0800 and after 2000.
 - k. Engineer Pier is off limits prior to 0800 and after 2000. It is also off limits during ceremonies, when closed due to inclement weather, or when operational necessity dictates.
 - l. The rappelling tower located on Dog Beach is off limits to unauthorized personnel.
- 6. Restricted activities.
- a. Walker Airfield is off limits to unauthorized automobiles, trucks, and motorcycles designed for street use. The airfield is also off limits to minibikes, go carts, and motorbikes except for specific group events authorized by duly executed real property license or permit.
 - b. All tennis courts are off limits for any activity other than tennis (e.g., skateboarding, roller skating or in-line skating).
 - c. The use of metal detectors, to include the searching for archaeological artifacts, is prohibited. Artifacts found on the installation must be turned over to the Casemate Museum. After normal duty hours, they will be turned over to the Provost Marshal Office.
 - d. Picnicking, sunbathing, walking dogs, and sports activities are prohibited on Continental Park.
 - e. Fishing will be in accordance with federal and state game regulations as well as Fort Monroe regulations. Fishing is prohibited in the boat slips adjacent to the marina pier as well as other areas on the installation. See FM Circular 215-96-2 for designated fishing areas.
 - f. Walking of animals without a means of policing their feces is prohibited.
 - g. Any unreasonably loud, disturbing or unnecessary noise, of such duration, character or intensity as to annoy or disturb persons in the vicinity, or in any residence or office, will be deemed a breach of the peace and is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, the playing of any radio, television or other electronic device, from either a residence or automobile, whether moving or parked. This also includes operation of vehicles which are in such disrepair, overloaded, or modified as to cause loud grating, grinding, rattling or other noises.
 - h. Other areas designated by the Commander, Fort Monroe, will be placed off limits as necessary.

FM Reg 190-3

7. Exceptions to policy. Only the installation commander can grant exceptions to this regulation. Submit requests through the Provost Marshal Office to the commander, with a complete description of the exception(s) and supporting justification.
